VCU Forensic Science
College of Humanities and Sciences

Crime Scene Photography

Stephen Stockman
About the Instructor

- Crime Scene Investigator
  Worked as a forensic investigator for city of Virginia Beach for over six years

- Forensic Trainer
  Instructed at the Virginia Forensic Science Academy as a primary instructor to practitioners in the field in crime scene procesing techniques for 18 years

- College Assistant Professor
  Two years teaching graduate and undergraduate courses in crime scene investigation

- Certified Crime Scene Analyst
  Holds certification with International Association for Identificaiton since 2010

Basic 40 hour Crime Scene Photography Course
July 15-19, 2024

Course Topics	Practical Exercises
Photography theory	Fundamentals
Available light photography	Exposure
Flash photography	Depth of Field
Tripod usage in crime scene	External flash control
Systematic photography	Low light crime scene photography
Special techniques	Crime scene photography
Examinaiton Quality	Examination quality photography
Low light, night photography	Victim/Suspect photo documentation
	Footwear/Fingerprint EQP

Certificate of Completion and Digital Badge provided upon completion.

All questions should be directed to Instructor: stockmansk@vcu.edu
Registration link will be provided after email request is received

COST: $540.00 Includes Friday lunch and parking

VCU STEM building 817 West Franklin St Richmond VA 23220